November 13th, 1933.

Hannah Gilbert Ogden died about a year ago. By her will, probated in Mercer County, N.J., she bequeathed Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) in trust to pay the income to her sister, Mrs. Maria S. Peters, for life, and after the death of Mrs. Peters, Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) of the Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) to be paid to Christ Church, Second and Market Streets, Philadelphia, and the remaining $40,000. to other institutions named by her. She also bequeathed three other legacies of $5,000. each, and after payment of the legacies, any residue was given to one of her friends. The inventory of the estate shows that the value of the securities at the time of her death amounted to about $75,000. It may be that when the estate is finally settled after the death of Mrs. Peters, the value of the securities may not equal the $65,000. required to pay the legacies, in which event the legacies will all abate proportionately. Mrs. Peters, the life beneficiary, was born in December, 1852, and is, therefore, over eighty years of age at the present time.

Yours truly,

Accounting Warden
